To whom it may concern

It is a true pleasure to enthusiastically recommend Murray Bealby for a position in your company or employment.

As an active and busy author who required a complete revamp of his website, I found Murray's excellent work more than met my expectations – in fact he exceeded them in almost every area. During our period of collaboration, Murray displayed an array of talent in a host of key areas, amongst which were –

His passion and expertise for coding.

His positive, never say no, can do mentality.

His flexibility and adaptability, particularly in his terrific ability to quickly understand my requirements, resulted in the delivery of a high quality product.

His ability to make good, timely decisions and judgements on my behalf.

As a communicator, Murray was really excellent; always attentive, constructive and helpfully expressive.

I found Murray to be a particularly approachable and creative man. His talent to “think outside the box” enabled him to generate a truly excellent outcome for me. My new website is vibrant. It entirely meets my needs, and is the envy of many of my fellow authors!

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you need any further information about Murray Bealby's work on my behalf. I'd be happy to chat personally, or exchange information by letter or e-mail.

Yours sincerely,

Frank Hurst
